BRIDGED THE MEUSE

GLENDALE MAN COMMANDED
MEN WORKING UNDER SHELL FIRE

It seems a far cry from a hell of shot and shell and poison gas along the Meuse, to a handsome bungalow in quiet, peaceful Glendale, but it was a most agreeable transition for Capt. O. McDermith, 423 West Broadway. He was in charge of a gang of men working on Elephant Butte Dam, the greatest irrigation dam in the world, 100 miles nearly due north of El Paso, Texas, on the Rio Grande, when war was declared. He dropped his tools at once and hurried to El Paso to enlist for service, sending his wife and two little sons to Glendale to live. He attended the Officers' Training School at Camp Lee, Virginia, and was commissioned as Captain. He was attached to the Combat Engineers of the 104th Division, Capt. McDermith commanding a company of 250 men. They went over in June, 1918, and were sent away down into Alsace, near the Switzerland line, where they constructed trenches and dugouts on German soil, a few square miles of which was held by the French all during the war. From there they were moved over south of Verdun and then when the Argonne offensive was begun the engineers were sent ahead of the remainder of the Division to build and repair roads for the advancing army, and particularly for the artillery so it could be brought into action rapidly enough to support the Infantry. In many instances, the Captain said, the Infantry, in their ardor, advanced far ahead of the supporting artillery, and occasionally suffered severely, sometimes from the barrage of their own big guns they had left behind. The remainder of the Division came up during the struggle for the wooded heights and gullies, which were fairly honeycombed with trenches, dugouts, batteries and machine gun nests. The engineers had to repair the bridges (Continued on Page 4)

THREE AUTOS IN SMASH

There was considerable of an auto mix-up in front of the Glendale Restaurant this forenoon. H. O. Enoch was going west on Broadway in his Chevrolet and after crossing Maryland started to turn around. He miscalculated in some way and struck W. W. Sawyer's Dodge which was standing next to the north curb line while the owner was across the street doing some shopping, smashing a fender. It then careened into Rev. J. S. O'Neill's Studebaker which he had left in front of the restaurant while he and his brother were eating breakfast in the restaurant. A wheel, one headlight and a fender were damaged considerably. The Chevrolet lost a hub cap.

NEW HOME OF T. W. PRESTON

Charles Kent & Son will begin today (Tuesday) on the house which they have taken the contract to build for Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Preston on Jackson St. between Lexington Drive and Doran street. It will be a one-story house of eight rooms with an entrance of purely Colonial style and will cost in the neighborhood of $6,000. It will have French doors in all the bedrooms and many attractive features appropriate to a frame house. In the way of material comforts it will possess a hot water storage system with an automatic gas heater that will insure a constant supply of hot water.

BEGINNING TODAY

THE MOTOR COPS WILL SURELY
GET YOU IF YOU DON'T WATCH OUT

The amended automobile law is in full force and Glendale motorists as well as all others, should take heed to obey all of its provisions, not for fear of being arrested and fined, but because as good citizens they should strive to obey all the laws. Hand signaling to give notice of change in direction, care at street intersections, speed limitations and headlight regulations are important changes featured as well as turning around at street crossings only. The maximum speed of 35 miles an hour allowed on country roads is in daylight only and when the road is clear 400 feet ahead and crossings are clear in both directions. It is announced that the headlight law is really going to be enforced. Heretofore enforcement lasted but a week or two after a fatal accident, then lapsed and today there are thousands of unlawful glare headlights in common use. May the enforcement be a real one this time. Study the law, you motorists, and obey it.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS

DR. ROBERT McLAIN POINTS OUT
DUTY OF AMERICANS TO LATIN AMERICANS

Sunday evening Dr. Robert McLain spoke at the Tropic Presbyterian Church. Dr. McLain is a field secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions and is a specialist in work among Mexicans. The gist of his speech follows:

"There is a great spirit of pessimism abroad. Men say that surely the end must be near since the world is in such a terrible state. Reading of the history of Nero's time is the best tonic for this kind of talk. Contrast the terror of the French Revolution with the idealism of the Allies' cause in the recent World War and the outlook won't be so dark. The United States has a great Mexican problem within her borders. She has been negligent in educating her Mexican immigrants. Many of them cannot speak English, and many of their children, native Americans, are illiterate. Of 105,000 children of school age in Texas only 35,000 were in school. Nine out of every ten Mexicans emigrating to this country are anti-American. If their hostility is not changed by kind treatment and education they become suitable followers for the anarchists and Bolsheviks. Health reports of conditions in Mexican communities in Los Angeles reveal things that are not fit to read in public. The Mexicans are very approachable. They are susceptible to any efforts made to train them and improve their condition. They respond well to the appeal of the Gospel message. Mexican settlements in Colorado have been entirely transformed during the period from 1867 to the present. The church and the school together wrought the change.

"Mexicans are naturally more religious than Americans. They conduct their prayer meetings with zest and spirit. They allow no long pauses, or short ones for that matter, to occur. They are shocked by such things as the statement of an American of some local prominence declaring that if given his way, he would turn half of the churches into dance halls.

"The Presbyterian Home Mission Board is doubling its appropriation to the Mexican work in Los Angeles. A $50,000 institutional church is to be erected there. Similar expenditures are to be made in El Paso and in San Antonio."

DAVID YOUNG BACK AT HIS OLD JOB

David Young, who left his home in Glendale and his highly paid job with the Union Iron Works of Los Angeles to enlist in the 158th Ambulance Corps two years ago, is back again with the old firm. When he returned from overseas a few weeks ago and took his discharge at the Presidio, he was offered a fine job in San Francisco and had almost decided to take it, but his former employer simply would not give him up, so he is with them again. He and his wife, whom he married after he enlisted, will live in Los Angeles for the present, till David's aunt, Mrs. Fannie O. Stone, returns from her visit to the old home in Rhode Island, when they may conclude to locate in Glendale.

MADRIGAL CLUB

A very enthusiastic meeting was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Parker, 212 North Orange street, to organize a new Glendale women's choral club to be known as "The Madrigal Club." About fifteen ladies were present. Mrs. Opal Greenwalt was elected president and Mrs. G. D. Roach Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Wright will act as accompanist and Mrs. Charles Parker, who has had much experience in this work in the east, will direct. Rehearsals will begin the latter part of September. Mrs. Parker hopes, with the fine singing material Glendale possesses to have a choral society in the near future that Glendale can take pride in and be very glad to hear.

COMING WEST TO CAMP MEETINGS

Elder W. T. Knox, treasurer of the General World Conference of Seventh Day Adventists and Elder F. C. Gilbert, also of the General Conference are coming west to attend the camp meetings of the church in Southern California, the first of which opens July 24th at Orange and holds until August 10th and the Los Angeles camp meeting the latter part of August. They are big men in the denomination and have lived on this coast.

CONFLICTS OF BLACKS AND WHITES

FIGHTING RESUMED IN WASHINGTON BUT RESTORATION OF ORDER EXPECTED SOON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Clashes in the race war are continuing in an unorganized way between small groups. Many occur on the street cars and in one instance a negro attacked the rear of a car and fired upon the four occupants. The casualty list thus far totals ten, one of the number being a city detective. The renewal of rioting last night was caused by attacks made by blacks upon white women. Soldiers, sailors and marines have been conspicuous in the fighting. Two troops of cavalry and 400 armed service men were not able to stay the crowds of determined rioters on Pennsylvania avenue, but the federal government is endeavoring to prevent a recurrence of attacks on negroes similar to those which took place Saturday night and soldiers and marines will supplement the work of the police in maintaining order.

MEXICAN SITUATION GROWS WORSE

ARMED BANDS PLUNDERING AND DRIVING AMERICANS
FROM HOMES ON WEST COAST

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN DIEGO, July 22.—According to news brought to this port by a U. S. Coast Guard cutter, armed groups of bandits are robbing and plundering and firing upon railroad trains on the west coast of Mexico and affairs there are in a more chaotic condition than at any time within recent years.

W. E. Chapman, U. S. Consul at Mazatlan and the U. S. Consul at Manzanillo have forwarded reports of the depredations to Washington. Americans have suffered in these raids, have been robbed and in some instances driven from their homes. The bandits are not Yaquis, but other Mexicans antagonistic to the Carranza regime. The situation is declared to be worse than four years ago when a U. S. fleet was mobilized at West Coast ports.

WOULD AMEND TREATY

SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE FAVORS RETURN OF SHANTUNG TO CHINA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—China's delegates to the peace conference were in Washington today and in conference with members of the Senate who are opposing that section of the treaty which would transfer control of Shantung from China to Japan. Strong support is promised for an amendment of the treaty returning Shantung to China.

PRINCE MAXIMILIAN FLEES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, July 22.—Fearing a personal attack upon his palace, Prince Maximilian of Baden is said to have fled to Switzerland.

MAY DELAY PRESIDENT'S TRIP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—While the illness of President Wilson is not regarded as at all critical his physicians admit it may leave him in a weakened condition which will make necessary a postponement of his western trip to review the Pacific Fleet at San Francisco.

ROAD BUILDING POPULAR

Our neighboring city, Eagle Rock, has called an election to vote on the question of issuing bonds for the concreting of Central avenue, a main north and south boulevard. The building of good roads seems to find favor all over the state, particularly in this Southland of ours.

COMMERCIAL CRYSTAL PALACE

Work has been resumed on the oil and gas station and vulcanizing plant of J. L. Grose at Maryland and Broadway and he expects now to be occupying it by the first of the month. The surface of the yard surrounding the station is being graded and will be packed and graveled to make a parking place for the cars of persons who wish to find safe quarters for a few hours or over night.

The architectural features of the establishment are decidedly unique and have caused much speculation on the part of passers by ignorant of the purpose for which they were built. The glass house is not to invite stones, nor for conservatory purpose but is in reality a huge show case for the display of the varied stock Mr. Grose will carry. There will be some floral accessories however in the shape of hanging baskets between the cement pillars and vines are promised to clamber over them which should make an exceedingly pretty setting for the little commercial Crystal Palace.

BEST COLUMBIA RECORD EVER MADE THIS MONTH

Columbia claims to have reached its high-water mark this month in the perfection of a record. The particular record in question is Massenet's "Elegie," sung by Riccardo Stracciari with violin obligato by Sascha Jacobsen. It is certainly a song by a famous composer sung by a famous baritone with a famous accompanist. Those who have listened to many records are inclined to agree with Columbia's claim.

A collection of the latest and best dance records has been gathered by Columbia for special circulation this month. It includes forty fox-trots, thirty-one one-steps, and six waltzes; and aims to supply enough dance music to keep the most indefatigable of dancers busy through the longest summer night.

The organizations which play this music include the Columbia Saxophone Sextette, Earl Fuller's Rector Novelty Orchestra, the Waldorf-Astoria Dance Orchestra, the Yerkes Jazzerimba Orchestra, Prince's Band, Jockers Brothers, Wilbur Sweetman's Jazz Band, the Columbia Orchestra, the Columbia Band (assisted in "Madelon" by the Peerless Quartet), the American Marimbaphone Band, the Jazzerimba Orchestra, Prince's Orchestra, Jockers' Dance Orchestra, and Joseph C. Smith and his Orchestra.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION

CITIZENS REMINDED THAT ELECTION TAKES PLACE THURSDAY FROM 8 TO 6

Citizens of Glendale should not permit themselves to forget that an election to vote bonds for school purposes will be held Thursday of the present week, July 24th, from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and that for the purposes of this election the Glendale City School District has been divided into three precincts, viz., Acacia Avenue Precinct, Central Avenue Precinct and Wilson Avenue Precinct.

Acacia Avenue Precinct will include all that portion of the district lying south of the center line of Windsor Road and extension thereof to the easterly and westerly boundaries of said district. The polling place will be the Acacia Avenue School. The inspector will be Joseph McPheeters and the judges of election, Mary J. Rich and Dora Howe.

The Central Avenue Precinct lies north of the center line of Doran street and extends to the easterly and westerly boundaries of the district. The polling place is the Central Avenue School. David Black will be the inspector and Ruth J. Wright and May C. Church the judges of election.

The Wilson Avenue Precinct is the district lying between Doran street on the north and Windsor Road on the south and extending to the easterly and westerly boundaries of the district. The polling place is the Wilson Avenue School (Intermediate). Joseph E. Henderson will be the inspector and the judges will be Lydia E. Kulp and Mary E. Jepson.

The purpose of the election is to provide money to erect a new building on the Broadway campus, it having become necessary to move and wreck the present building because of the condemnation of part of the school grounds for street purposes, and to purchase some additional ground at a combined expense of $11,000 to $76,000, to provide kindergartens for Columbus and Central Avenue Schools, and to purchase or lease land to complete campus at Ceritos Avenue School, also for furnishings and equipment of new buildings, all of which will require an issue of $100,000 and all of which is urgently needed for the conduct of our rapidly growing schools. Every parent who has kept in touch with school matters knows these things are needed, and those who are not informed should study the statement issued by the Board of Trustees and the Advisory Committee which is working with the trustees and which was published in the Evening News of July 17th.

ANTI-ANNEXATION MEETING

All citizens of Glendale who are opposed to the annexation of Glendale to Los Angeles are invited to be present at an anti-annexation meeting in the auditorium of the Glendale Union High School this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of making the temporary organization permanent.

GLENDALE MAN HEARS OF COMRADE'S DEATH

H. C. Tomaw of 506 West Elk avenue received news this week of the death of an army comrade in Illinois at the age of 82 years. Mr. Tomaw touched elbows with this comrade, Carson Johnson by name, in the 54th Illinois, on many a long march and at Paducah, Ky., in 1864, when Forrest made his final unsuccessful dash for the Ohio River, caught Johnson in his arms as he reeled and fell with his right hand shot off. Maimed as he was, Johnson made good as a farmer and accumulated considerable property in the 55 years after he came home a cripple.

PAUL MUNSON HOME

Paul N. Munson, musician, 79th F. A. Band, youngest son of Eld. R. W. Munson, Chaplain of Glendale Sanitarium, has returned from overseas.

He caused great rejoicing in his home, 219 North Kenwood, by suddenly dropping in upon his parents a few days ago with a big suitcase in one hand and his trench helmet in the other.

He will remain in Southern California to be near his parents and his sister, who is a nurse at the Sanitarium.

BEING A JURYWOMAN

MRS. FREEMAN KELLEY TELLS
HER PLEASANT EXPERIENCE
IN JUDGE MONROE'S COURT

Mrs. Freeman Kelley has completed a month's service as jurywoman in the courtroom of Judge Monroe and reports that she does not at all regret the experience, that it has been very helpful in an educational way because it has made her acquainted with the way in which the business of the law courts is carried on and she has also found it a splendid school in which to learn human nature.

When she asked Judge Monroe his opinion of women for jury service he replied that at first he was opposed to it, but that the first case on which women served in his court converted him. He found they were most conscientious, that they gave strict attention to the cases, and that they were very fair. When her period of service was completed the judge gave the jurywomen a nice talk in which he told them how much he appreciated their work and how pleased he was with the verdicts they had rendered. He expressed the hope they would come again to his court as jurywomen and shook hands with each one and thanked her for her service.

In commenting on her experience, Mrs. Kelley said: "I enjoyed meeting the different attorneys and hearing their arguments and their examinations of witnesses. I had supposed it would be an awful ordeal for a woman, but I found we were treated with perfect courtesy by judges and attorneys and by the gentlemen of the jury and there was nothing unpleasant about it. I met some very nice people, indeed, business and professional men and club women. I was awfully scared when I received the summons to jury service, but after a day or two I became so accustomed to it that I thought no more of it than going to any other meeting of friends and acquaintances."

"Judge Monroe said he thought it would prove a splendid thing for women, that it would familiarize them with points of law that they needed to know and would help them to see things through other eyes. Their obligation to consider cases from the facts and points of law rather than as their sympathies would dictate, would also be good for them."

APRICOT SEASON NEARLY ENDED

T. E. DeNise of Sycamore Canyon closed up his apricot picking for drying, Monday. He had 100 tons of fruit picked from about 2000 trees. He says the crop was small this year compared to previous seasons. The fruit when dried will net about 20 tons. He paid out $1500 in the past two weeks to pickers and pitters. The canneries are now paying $80 a ton for choice fruit, as compared with $12 to $20 a ton a few years ago.

NEW CAFE TO OPEN SOON

Mrs. Jack Thomas of 204½ East Chestnut is preparing to open the "White Inn" at the corner of East Broadway and Glendale avenue and will put on some special features that should make it quite popular with business men in particular. She hopes to have the opening early next week.

WELCOME NEW ELKS

LOCAL LODGE INITIATES EIGHT
NEW MEMBERS AND RECEIVES 11 APPLICATIONS

Glendale Elks report with satisfaction a splendid meeting Monday evening when eight new members were initiated into the lodge. The initiation work was put on by the officers of the organization headed by Exalted Ruler Cameron D. Thom, and the following were received into membership: Harry J. Glazier, Arved W. Swenson, Clark P. Christy, Arthur G. Hannaford, Laurence Dutton, Robert E. Rowley, James H. Wittmeyer and Roy C. Flint.

There were three others who are to be initiated who were not present and therefore could not be enrolled, but they will doubtless be on hand at the next meeting. Eleven applications for membership are now under consideration and the growth of the lodge is becoming phenomenal.

Following the meeting a supper and high class entertainment was enjoyed in the Jinks Room, of which part of the program Sid Simon and Joe Fortunato had charge. Besides the large attendance of members there were goodly delegations from Fillmore and San Fernando. A special guest was Exalted Ruler Lewis of the Riverside Lodge.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, JULY 22, 1919

CHILDREN ARE STARVING

If Rumania could only furnish three good square meals a day to her youngsters, plus a little candy on the side now and then, it would be sort of a Utopia for little boys. Why? Well to be frank—there is no such thing as soap there. A hurry-up call for larger shipments of both toilet and laundry varieties has just come through from American Jewish Relief agents in Bucharest. And the soap will be forthcoming, too, on the next relief ship that sails. But after all, the pleasure that the Rumanian youngsters may get in being soapless is a mighty small silver lining to the big cloud of starvation and disease that has caught them in its grip.

The latest report from the Bucharest agents of the American Jewish Relief Committee, which is planning to hold a drive for funds in this state in the early fall, states that although the American Relief Administration has supplied flour to Rumania, most foodstuffs simply do not exist there. The report says:

"There is a scarcity in fats, sugar, condensed milk, beans and cocoa. Send immediately as much soap as you can purchase and as much plain clothing as possible. The need of soap and clothing is so striking that even in a city like Bucharest you notice it in every street."

This report substantiates others that have come, not only from other districts of Rumania, but from many sections of Eastern and Central Europe. In many countrits, especially in Poland, conditions are far worse than those in Rumania. The Jews, who are usually from the poorer classes, are dying in thousands from starvation and typhus, according to recent advices.

As already announced, prominent Jews throughout the state, at the express request of such nationally prominent men as Nathan Straus, Felix M. Warburg and Henry Morgenthau, have organized for a campaign for funds to save millions of both Jews and Christians abroad from starving. The date for this drive is to be definitely announced later.

QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED

July 16, 1919.

Mr. Howard Robertson,
President of Board of Public Service Commissioners,
Los Angeles, California.

Dear Sir:

The consolidation of the City of Glendale with the City of Los Angeles is now being agitated in our City, and many of our citizens are desirous of getting correct information upon those things which bear directly upon the reasons being urged for such consolidation. We, therefore, take the liberty of making some inquiry of the officials of the City of Los Angeles concerning these matters. The inquiries which we would like to have answered by you, or such other officials of your City as may be in a position to correctly state answers to the same, are as follows:

1. What would be the amount of the bond issue necessary to be voted to furnish the City of Glendale Aqueduct water, and by whom would such bonds have to be voted and upon what property would the same be a lien?

2. What method would be used by the City of Los Angeles to retire such bonds—that is, would they be retired out of the earnings of the Water Department of the City of Los Angeles, or would they be retired by taxing the property affected by such bond issue, whether that be a district or otherwise?

3. What is the amount of bonds of the City of Los Angeles that the City of Glendale must assume if consolidation between the two cities takes place?

4. To what extent will the property in the City of Glendale be taxed to pay off the bonds of the City of Los Angeles assumed upon consolidation, basing your answer upon the present method of retiring such bonds?

5. What would be the amount in dollars and cents that the people of Glendale would have to pay annually to pay the interest and retire the bonds of the City of Los Angeles assumed by the City of Glendale upon consolidation, basing your answer upon the present method of raising the necessary funds, and assuming, for the purpose of your answer, the assessed valuation of Glendale to be $8,000,000.00?

6. There now exists a bond indebtedness of the City of Glendale incurred before the consolidation of Tropico with Glendale, and not assumed by Tropico, amounting to $323,000, incurred for the purpose of acquiring municipal light and water systems. What method of retirement of these bonds would be followed by the City of Los Angeles—that is, would the same be retired out of the earnings of such public utilities, or would they be retired by taxing the property within the City limits of Glendale as it existed at the time of voting such bonds?

7. There are at present two municipal improvement districts in the City of Glendale covering the territory formerly the City of Tropico and formed for the purpose of acquiring municipally owned light and water plants. The amount of bonds for the two districts aggregates $99,500. What method of retirement of these bonds would be followed by the City of Los Angeles—that is, would the same be retired out of the earnings of said public utilities, or would the same be retired by taxing the property within such district?

The matters referred to in the above questions are of vital importance to the citizens of Glendale, and in order that we may have the correct answers from those authorized to speak on these questions, we ask you to kindly put your replies to the same in writing.

Respectfully yours,

Signed,

FRANK L. MUHLEMAN,
HARTLEY SHAW,

Trustees of the City of Glendale.

A LITTLE SONG OF HOPE

Somewhere, the weary spirit
May reach a haven calm.
Somewhere, the heart that's broken
May find a healing balm.
Somewhere, what men call failure
May be success most true.
Somewhere, the crown and laurel
May replace the cross and rue.
Sometime, the sky may brighten,
And the shadows flee away.
Sometime, we may be happy,
Forever and a day.
Sometime, faint hearts may strengthen
And dead hopes live again.
Sometime, lost friends may join us
In a land beyond our ken.

—Leila Peabody.

O. expects to journey to Long Beach next Saturday morning for a picnic in which members will renew acquaintance with their former fellow members, Mrs. Jean Wilde and Mrs. Alice Carter, who are spending the summer at Long Beach. Lilly of this city, who divides his time between Glendale and Bakersfield.

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "is so smart dat dey loses interest in plain old-fashioned truth 'cause dar ain't enough novelty to it."

Personals

Mrs. Mary Chadwick of 1631 Gardena avenue has been confined to her home by illness but is better.

Dr. Galen Gould of 311 South Central avenue, who recently returned from six months' service overseas, has opened a dental office in Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. E. Bellue of 352 Myrtle and her son, Spencer, have gone to Huntington Park for a week and Madeline Bellue is the guest of her grandmother at Boyle Heights.

Roy W. Masters and wife of 114 N. Orange and Leo Meincke, Mrs. Masters' brother, who lives in one of the De Luxe Apartments, go to Venice tomorrow to spend the remainder of the summer.

Dr. Montague Cleaves of 1276 Boynton street has gone east on professional business. He will make his first stop in Arizona and from there may go to New York before returning.

Mrs. Charles Parker of 212 North Orange street has had the pleasure of entertaining the past week Mrs. Rublee of Los Angeles. During her stay the ladies motored to Santa Monica to see Mr. Parker's mother who is an old friend of Mrs. Rublee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Danner, who have been away for ten weeks visiting old friends and relatives in Kansas, are expected home Friday. They write they have enjoyed every minute, and have had a royal good time. Mr. Danner's parents are returning with them.

F. P. Wilkin has moved into his new home at 500 North Louise St., after making some improvements such as painting and building a double garage. He is contemplating the building of a neat little store on the rear end of a lot he owns near his present home. This would be quite an accommodation to the residents of that neighborhood.

Mrs. Alma Hilliard, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Norton, who has been ill at the home of her parents, is now well enough to return to her own home in Los Angeles. Homer Powers of Santa Monica, his wife and daughter, and Mrs. Paxton of Milton, Ia., were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. Norton. They were parishioners of his years ago in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Green, who were quietly married at the home of Rev. O. P. Rider on the 12th and who have been spending a week's honeymoon here, have gone to Sacramento, where the groom is employed as an electrical engineer and where they will make their home. Mrs. Green was Miss H. Louise McComer before her marriage and resided on Cypress avenue.

A. F. Webster took charge of the Park Avenue Grocery Monday morning buying out A. V. Marcellus of South Dakota, who has been living in Hollywood ever since he came to California last November. He will return to his old home soon. Mr. Webster was a traveling man for years in Illinois and conducted a general store in Vermont, his home city, at the same time, so he and his son, Joe, will make a good team in the new business out here.

Charles O'Neill of Los Angeles, a salesman for the Ford Agency in Glendale, is staying with his brother, Rev. J. S. O'Neill, during the absence of his wife, who is spending the week in Catalina as house guest of the Woodlils, old friends. Mr. O'Neill finds his duties as Ford salesman quite different from his former work as bank teller. He likes the work in the open air and he certainly has made good as a salesman of autos, his first month setting a record of sales far ahead of any previous one ever made in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson of East Chestnut street, and Mrs. C. U. Wells were theatre guests of the Actress Marjorie Rambeau and her mother and occupied a box Monday evening at Clune's auditorium for the opening of the actress' fortnight's engagement in Los Angeles. Mr. Jackson leaves for Bakersfield today to inspect a ranch he has recently acquired there, but has never seen. He is hoping to find it carrying a good crop of oil. On the 28th he and his family will go to La Jolla to spend the balance of the summer.

Watch for the opening of the White Inn, where the Jewel City Cafe was formerly located. 27212*

MASONIC NOTICE

Unity Lodge, No. 368, F. and A. M., will confer the Third Degree Tuesday evening, July 22nd, at 7:30. All Masons welcome.

R. W. MASTERS, W. M.
A. W. TOWER, Sec.

Miss Naomi Pratt of Orange street returns today from San Diego where she has been enjoying an exceedingly pleasant outing.

Mrs. Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine of 2025 Kenneth Road, and her husband, Professor Merrill, of the University of Chicago, are here for the summer as guests of the Valentines.

Miss Helen Reynolds of 2000 Kenneth Road, who has been ill at Thornycroft Hospital, has sufficiently recovered to return to her home where she will be glad to see her friends.

Harry Franklin, son of Judge J. H. Franklin, of Central avenue and Mrs. Harry Franklin, arrived from Oklahoma Monday noon and will spend several weeks here visiting friends and relatives.

Leland Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baker of South Brand boulevard has been confined to his home for a day or two by an attack of bronchitis but is better and expects to resume his work in Butts' Grocery Store very soon.

Miss Lucile Johnson, a night operator in the telephone office is lying at the point of death at the home of Mrs. Nellie F. Simpson at 203 East Laurel street. She became ill last week of an acute attack of intestinal trouble and has grown steadily worse.

Attorney Kemper Campbell of South Brand boulevard has returned from a two weeks' stay in Pomona where he was called to look after the interests of the heirs of a large estate in process of settlement there. He and Mrs. Campbell expect to go to Catalina the 12th of August for a vacation outing.

There is rejoicing in the family of Frank H. Olmstead, of 1431 North Pacific avenue, because they will soon be able to celebrate the return of his two sons-in-law, Messrs. Battey and Timmsen, who have been in service in France for eleven months. Herbert Battey, husband of their daughter, Winifred, arrived two weeks ago. The other soldier is now in Virginia. He feared for a time he would be detained until September, but he has been discharged and will be here before long.

GLENDAL SOLDIER DIES IN GERMANY

Mrs. Joseph Chester of 1227 North Brand boulevard is prostrated by the sad news which has just reached her of the death of her husband of typhoid fever. He has been with the Army of Occupation in Germany and she was looking forward to his return in the near future. She is left with a child three years of age.

THE RICHARDSON FAMILY

Mrs. Ella Richardson was made happy this week by the receipt of letters from her son, Will, who is, or was, with the Army of Occupation on the Rhine. The letters were written June 30th and July 1st and stated that his unit were turning in all of their surplus clothing preparatory to leaving for an embarkation point. They expect to be relieved of work on Wednesday, July 2d, and to start the following Saturday from Coblenz. He was jubilant as he said they had given up hope of the possibility of ever being sent home after so long a time. Will is a Military Policeman and has been on the Rhine more than seven months.

Letters from Omar Burt Richardson, who recently graduated from Yale, are enthusiastic about the business opportunities that have opened to him as a result of his connection with such a school. He is urging his brother, Paul, who is a 1919 graduate of Glendale High School, to come east and enter Andover with one of the large Eastern Universities as his objective. After a month's vacation Burt expects to start work with the U. S. Steel Corporation, one of the largest business concerns in the world with a capital of $500,000,000. He hopes to be able to "steal" a few dollars with this concern.

Master Billie Mitchell writes his Grandma Richardson that he and his mamma arrived at their home in King City all right after their visit with her here.

NEW RESIDENT

Burton & Chandler, the real estate dealers, report considerable activity in acreage. One of their recent transactions has been the sale of a three and one-half acre orange grove belonging to Dan Campbell to Dr. Grimm of Portland, Oregon, who will improve it by erecting a house on the corner of Highland Ave. and Kenneth Road with the intention of making this his permanent home. He is a noted physician in Portland and will be an acquisition to the community.

Business men's lunch at noon and table d'hote dinner at 6 will be features of the new "White Inn," to open soon at 637 E. Broadway. 27212* across the Meuse and build new ones, in the face of very heavy shell fire. Capt. McDermith's company was very lucky, he said, losing only three men, though shells exploded constantly all around them. They knew always just where to expect the next shell, he said, as the Germans were so methodical that they varied their line of fire in intervals of absolute regularity. The company that followed them, the 28th, lost nearly half their number in the raking fire directed against them, but they finished their appointed task in spite of it all.

Capt. McDermith said the men were somewhat nervous and excited when first under fire, but they soon got used to it and carried on their work without paying the slightest heed to exploding shells or the hail of machine gun bullets. They believed that if the shell had their number it would get them, whether they dodged or not, and were quite philosophical about it. The poison gas was more dreaded than shot or shell, he said. He would not take anything for his experiences, but nothing except a similar necessity would induce him to try it again.

HOW MANY WE FIND

(By F. Booth)

There is many a man bears a tarnished name,
Who has not been more than his fellows to blame;
His intentions quite honest yet fortune has frowned,
And the seeds he has sown have decayed in the ground.
The fruits he felt sure he should gather ere long,
Have failed to appear; everything has gone wrong;
His hopes proved too sanguine, but that's no excuse,
He has failed,—and his portion is scorn and abuse.

Some call him a gambler, a swindler, a fool,
Yet had he been lucky they'd share in the pool;
They were willing to grasp at the fortune if won,
But to share in the loss, no! that couldn't be done.
They pose as poor martyrs, deceived and betrayed,
Then vaunt of the fortunes amassed by fair trade,
And condemn everyone who believes in good luck
Yet they fain would be winners, but have not the pluck.

They make me feel sick, when with sanctified mien,
They pretend to be shocked at iniquities seen;
And they trumpet the cause of morality high,
Whilst they practice the very same vice on the sly.
There are good men, thank God, but I find them to be,
As a rule most indulgent, and always more free
To forgive, and more eager to win a man back,
Than to crush him because he has strayed from the track.

"Never judge by appearances" lest you mistake,
And find what you took for a staff is a snake;
Nor believe every man who is saintly to see,
Is as spotless and pure, as you think him to be.
A man that would rather defame than defend,
Is not worthy of being considered a friend;
His professions may sound very fair and high flown,—

A MESSAGE

The whole world has suddenly awakened to the real meaning of home ownership. Those who have been satisfied to dwell in rented houses, apartments, flats and hotels have come to realize the non-permanency of their existence and are clamoring for individuality found only in homes they can call their own.

Mechanics and manufacturers are taxed to the utmost in meeting this new condition which is causing a famine in practical, modern homes. It is considered ten years is too short a time to fulfill the requirements of those who have determined to acquire homes of their own, and the grave question now and for years to come is, "Where is all the material and labor coming from to meet this new demand?"

Now, before conditions and prices make additional advances, you should arrange for whatever buildings your requirements call for, and in considering this, please be advised we are completely equipped to advise with and care for your every requirement from planning, furnishing materials, etc., to supervising the construction.

Our modern methods will be of material help to you, and represent a real saving.

The above photograph is only one of our numerous designs of modern bungalows, which may be inspected at our office at any time. We are always glad to advise with you. Let us solve your building problems.
